About

Returning to its eighth season after a two-year hiatus, the Meridiem Wind Orchestra is a unique ensemble of professional musicians, music teachers, and superb community musicians. These remarkable musicians volunteer their time to bring high quality performances of wind band music to the Capital Regional District, creating a model for the next generation of musicians and concertgoers, as well as an exciting and challenging collaborative experience for the musicians themselves. Past programs have included wind ensemble repertoire of historic works, popular and contemporary music, orchestra transcriptions, as well as premieres of new compositions by Canadian composers.
